

VISION

To disseminate the Gospel of Jesus Christ and Word of God, to the end that people may be evangelized and believers may be conformed to the image of Jesus Christ.

To regularly assemble for fellowship, counsel and instruction, to worship God in Spirit and in truth and to cooperate in the building up the whole body of Christ.

To provide pastoral and human relations counseling in appropriate locations to those who need and request such ministry.

To involve every participant of this ministry in its activities and in the ministry of the Holy Spirit.

To strengthen family units so that the home life of each member is healthy and fruitful by biblical standards.

To create a training facility for children, youth, and adults of all ages, for the purpose of raising their standard of life experience, spirit, soul and body. That shall specifically include biblical training.

To perform the Sacraments of the Church which include, but are not limited to, the following: to baptize believers in water; to anoint the sick with oil; to conduct weddings and funerals; to dedicate infants; and to celebrate the Lord's Supper (Communion).

To act with charitable concern for, and to help, not only members of this ministry, but also all people in need of any help which this ministry can give, regardless of race, social position, or religious afflicted, imprisoned, underprivileged, or aged persons, both within and without this ministry.

To pray for the needs of all people, for local and national leaders and governments and for all that are in authority as instructed in 1 Timothy 2:1-3.

VISION

To support and encourage communication and extension of the Christian life and witness by sound and comprehensive teaching of biblical principles to all people, both within this ministry and elsewhere, not only by conventional modes, but also by all means which will accomplish such communication developed by modern technology.

These purposes should include to sponsor, participate in, conduct or engage in theatrical productions and drama groups, radio broadcasting, the printing or reproduction and publication of recordings, books and other materials, the establishment, operation of, and the holding and conducting of seminars, study groups, workshops, and meetings, by either resident or traveling ministers; to receive offerings for such purposes; and to grant aid and pay reasonable compensation to persons, firms and corporations for services actually rendered for such purposes; provided, that none of the following shall be done for private profit.

To establish and maintain a place of worship, study, recreation and social interaction, a biblical teaching center, ministering to the whole family and to the whole person, spirit, soul and body.

To recognize support and cooperate with the various ministries established by God to equip believers to fulfill their respective functions as members of the Body of
